

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	5
THE FRIEND – ENEMY PARADIGM: A MODEL FOR ANTI-SERBIAN PROPAGANDA	19
AN ORGANIZED CAMPAIGN OF MANIPULATION	51
MEDIA AND OFFICIALS: A NEGATIVE SYMBIOSIS	77
MEDIA IN THE SERVICE OF NATIONAL INTEREST	105
TRIGGER EVENTS: VASA MISKINA STREET, MARKALE, SREBRENICA, RACAK	127
THE GERMAN AND AUSTRIAN PRESS	155
Serbia – a disturbing factor	160
Anti-Serbism and the Greater Serbia Propaganda	169
A return to 1914 - the slandering of a people	179
The Serbs – terrorists and chetniks	184
The Serbs – communists and fascist	188
Long-lasting structures	195
Vindictiveness and accusations against the Serbs and Serbia	205
From Kayserling to Habermas	211
The Anti- Serbian mood spreads	214

THE AMERICAN PRESS	221
Advanced Roman Catholic versus backward Orthodox	224
The Serbs – a threat to Balkan harmony	227
The „unity“ of Yugoslavia: secessionism presented as federalism	230
The Mastery of Greater Serbia	233
CIA Report: Warning or Scenario?	236
Kosovo – a favourite Media Theme	239
German Recognition – a relief for the American press	241
The Serbs as enemies	244
From Comintern and Cankar’s house to fascism and Nazism	251
THE BRITISH PRESS	257
EPILOGUE: THE DEMONISATION OF THE SERBS	275
APPENDIX	301
BIBLIOGRAPHY	311
INDEX	337